Product Description

Alles Tomate! - card game (DE, EN), for 2 to 8 players, aged 6 and older

Alles Tomate! is a memory game where the things you just memorized change all the time.

Seven categories of farm life form the framework. For each category (farm animals, products, fruit, vegetables, produce, machines and in the farmhouse) there is a card face down, whose object the players have to remember. Then a card from the deck is revealed, which determines the category that is now being asked for based on its colour. The player who is quickest to call the correct object of the face-down card gets it. The face-up card is now placed face-down in its place. But first the players must memorize the new item.

After three rounds, who knows which vegetable is still being sought?

Alles Tomate! is a card memorizing game that is always exciting and is characterized by simple rules and long game play.
