Product Description

Stone Age: Das Ziel ist dein Weg, basic game, board game (DE), for 2-4 players, ages 10+

Times were really tough than ours Ancestors stooped behind the wooden plow. But even then progress could not be stopped. Good tools and high-yielding plants made work easier and life pleasant.

At Stone Age, players compete to relive this time. They cut wood, break the stone and wash your gold from the river. They eagerly exchange all of this, expand your village and thus reach new levels of civilization.

That is exciting and gripping. Luck is just as important as good planning. And a sufficient portion of food for his people after each round. Bite your way through like your ancestors did. Only then will the wreath beckon you.

Stone Age - an exciting journey into the past.
