Product Description

Zombie Kidz Evolution, board game (DE), for 2-4 players, ages 7+

Zombies are about to break into your school, even though your German teacher sometimes does annoying, you definitely don't want them to destroy the gym or library! All the other students are running away, so it's your job to fight back!

Zombie Kidz Evolution by Le Scorpion masqué is the first legacy game for children. This game is evolving!

Up to four players defend their school together against the undead. To do this, they move through the school to eliminate zombies and send them back to the zombie supply. Because if that is used up when a new zombie has to be placed on the board, everyone has lost.

In order to win the game, the players have to block each of the four entrances. As the players get better, they can complete missions, follow their development with trophy stickers and gradually open the 13 envelopes with new material for the game.
