Product Description

PÜNCT, board game

A good connection is worth a lot. Whoever connects opposite sides in PÜNCT has already won. But it's harder than it sounds! On your turn, you either bring a new piece into play or move a piece that is already on the board. The more stones there are in the game, the more possibilities there are to make connections. But be careful: each new piece always reveals something about your own tactics!

Caution! Not suitable for children under 36 months.

- 2 players
