Product Description

arctic scavengersIn 2097, the entire earth was surrounded by catastrophic climate change, which put the globe into a new ice age. Almost 90% of the world's population was eliminated, which brought the survivors to merge into loose communities and tribes.In Arctic Scavengers you are the leader of a small survival tribe. Resources, tools, medicine and mercenaries are scarce. She and her tribe occur in the fight for survival against up to four other tribes. Build your trunk, beat your head with other players and even bluff them for victory.The player with the biggest trunk at the end of the game is explained to the winner!Arctic Scavengers, a game for 1 to 5 players aged 13 to 100 years.
