Product Description

Bummelbahn On a small island, the players compete with the best train as a train driver and to bring goods to different places. The playing cards can be used for different purposes: You can either improve the train as a cart or building, as payment funds are used for playing other cards or loaded as cargo on matching cars. Who charges the train of a teammate immediately receives a bonus or an additional action! If you have collected the most points through your own train and fulfilling delivery orders, wins! At stroll path, it's about the players to assemble their train from different cards during the game and loaded with goods. These were in turn can be used to meet deliveries and thus obtain victory points. The cards, as already known from other games, have several uses. On the one hand, they serve as a wagon that can be grown directly at your train, on the other hand as payment for new wagons and buildings. Alternatively, you can also be used as a goods with which your train loads. There are also local and building cards that give you either more traction or other bonuses. Bummelbahn, a game for 2 to 4 players aged 10 to 100 years.
