Product Description

Deception: Undercover Allies, Board Game, for 4 -12 Players, from 14 Years

A wave of fear is sweeping the streets of Hong Kong. The rumour is spreading like wildfire that the latest series of murders could be the work of one of the investigators charged with solving the cases. The police employs more helpers, but the killer is not idle either.

Deceived: Secret allies come into play, giving both teams new skills. New clues and murder weapon cards offer even more possible solutions to the cases. New clue boards give forensic scientists even more choice in their descriptions, and a new event board puts the already weak confidence of investigators to the test. With so many new variables, both sides must find new ways to counter the deception they are exposed to.

The basic game Deceived: Murder in Hong Kong is required to play with this expansion.
