Product Description

Floes hopping, board game (DE, EN, FR), for 2-4 players, from 5 years

Among the ice floes in the Arctic Ocean, the fattest fish are cavorting. Even the polar bears know this and go hunting. Of course, every polar bear tries to catch the most fish and jumps eagerly from floe to floe. But wind and waves keep moving the ice floes. The voraciousness of the other bears also reduces the number of fish noticeably. And sometimes even an Eskimo interferes in the hunting activities or a cheeky seal steals a fish already caught. The first to satisfy his hunger with ten fish in this icy environment is the bear king in the polar sea.
