Product Description

Blumenfamilien - Quartett (DE), for 2+ players, ages 6+

Make the tulip known to its relative, the toad lily, or unite the iris family, by bringing the freesia together with its siblings - the crocus and the gladiolus. Collect the cards of 52 garden flowers and organize them into their botanical families. Whoever has his quartet full first, wins. You don't need any previous botanical knowledge for this funny and lovingly designed game.
