Product Description

Trails of Tucana, Board game (DE), for 1-8 players, ages 8+

Tucana, a little-known group of islands, is home to a multitude of strange creatures. The peoples of bygone times have also left their mark there. Players create a network of trails across the islands to help residents travel between villages and visit as many attractions as possible. May the best planner win!

Each player receives an island map with several villages, sights and different terrains. In each turn two cards are revealed and all players have to draw routes on their island between the two terrains shown on the cards. Connecting suitable villages with one another and paving paths from the villages to the sights earns points. Whoever has the most points after playing through the deck twice wins.
