Product Description

City of Angels, board game (DE), for 1-5 players, ages 16+

City of Angels is set in Los Angeles in the 1940s and is a game by Secrets, Deceptions, and Investigations. The majority of the players slip into the roles of LAPD Detectives who are ready to do anything to close a case successfully. However, one player takes on the role of Chisel, whose sole aim is to mislead the investigators on every move through bluffs, manipulation and (often) direct lies.

Each player receives a separate, detailed one at City of Angels Book with information on the nine cases. Every crime is a carefully composed puzzle that can unfold in different ways. City of Angels uses the innovative Adaptive Response Card (ARK) system to create the feeling of questioning a suspect. With the help of the reaction cards, the "Chisel" carefully selects what the suspects reveal to the investigators. Players can question answers they think are lies, but there is a risk: if they are wrong, the Chisel will gain control over them.
