Product Description

My City * Nominated Game of the Year 2020 *, board game (DE), for 2-4 players, ages 10+

Build and develop a city and at the same time travel through time go: The placement game My City provides exciting twists and turns from game to game. During the individual games, new rules and game materials for the two to four players are added again and again, until after 24 games the varied history of a city is told. The board game starts with simple rules that allow you to get started quickly. Is a game over? Then stickers, which are in the eight sealed envelopes, are stuck on the plan. So the game plan continues to evolve. Further requirements and game materials await in the next few games, which will advance the game and always provide surprises!
