Product Description

Cluedo - The Big Bang Theory, board game (DE), for 2-6 players, ages 8+

Sheldon is extremely angry! Someone has tampered with one of their sanctuaries, which is a very serious matter to them! So he gathered six of his so-called friends and set up a whiteboard to analyze who it was, what exactly was perpetrated and where this act of senseless destruction took place. Did Penny dog-ear the comic in the laundry room? Or did Howard dismantle the Shelbot in the stairwell?

Only YOU can help Sheldon to find the culprit and make Sheldon's life worth living again by solving this shameful act!

The crime scene playing cards, Suspects and outrage are drawn face-down beforehand and hidden in the case file, the remaining cards are distributed to the players. As in the classic CLUEDO, you use dice to move your pawn from place to place across the board. If you enter a crime scene with your character, you ask your fellow players about a suspect, an outrage and the place where you are, e.g. Penny's living room. If the player to the left of the questioner has one of the relevant cards, he must secretly show it. You then enter the information on the enclosed notepad. Little by little, a sequence of events emerges from your own cards and the information from the other players. Only when you have gathered the necessary evidence and have the solution in mind by means of a process of elimination should you bring charges. Then you have either won or embarrassed yourself as a snoop!
