Pandemic Legacy - Season Zero, board game, 2-4 players, ages 14+ (DE edition)

The final part of the Pandemic: Legacy series turns you into CIA agents on the trail of the secrets of the Cold War. Get ready for intrigue, espionage and corruption! In the middle of the Cold War. You and your fellow medical students have been recruited by the CIA on an urgent mission: the investigation of a dangerous new Soviet bio-weapon. Although they failed to turn their C0dA virus project into a weapon, the leading researchers in the Soviet Union have reportedly achieved a breakthrough with another pathogen they are calling Project MEDUSA. You and your team of medical specialists who have become CIA agents must investigate and prevent the development of this bioweapon at all costs - the fate of the world depends on it.

Pandemic Legacy: Season 0 is the two to four player legacy cooperative game developed by Matt Leacock and Rob Daviau, immersing players in a story of covert operations, special agents and international intrigue. The Cold War is heating up and you must work together to prevent the widespread destruction the Soviet Union is threatening to wreak havoc on the allied nations of the West.
