Product Description

ALONE, board game (DE), for 2-4 players, ages 14+

Alone (TM) is not a normal dungeon crawler. One of the players controls the hero, a shipwrecked spaceman who is exploring an unknown maze full of dangers. He tries to complete missions while up to 3 players pull the strings as the forces of evil in the dark and try to kill him.

Depending on which side you choose, the gaming experience is a complete one other! The hero has to feel his way ahead in the glow of his flashlight and can only see a few sectors of the map at a time. Alone and abandoned, his life in constant danger, he has to be careful with every step and collecting clues and avoiding traps are often more important than fighting.

On the other side of the screen, the forces lurk of evil on the smallest mistake of the hero. You can see the entire map and you are the real cause of all the horrors that lurk in the maze. They let dark creatures appear and control them, set insidious traps and make the hero's life hell.

The supplied scenario booklet guides you through a long and exciting campaign in which you take turns taking on the role of the hero. Or you can simply use the rules to create your own scenarios!
