Product Description

Chronicles of Crime - Noir, board game for 1 - 4 players, ages 14+ (DE extension)

Chronicles of Crime is a cooperative investigation game that combines a board game, an app, and optionally even virtual reality, in a story. You and your fellow players solve criminal cases by searching for suspects, witnesses and clues across town. Look out for the clues in 3D scenes!

1950, Los Angeles: You are Sam, a private detective in Los Angeles. Or maybe you are Bob, a Hollywood writer? You wake up on the hard cement of some alley with a massive headache and are not entirely sure which of the two is true.

So many memory gaps - how did you end up here? Flashes of memories pour in without making sense. You are only sure of one thing: you are on your own. And that means that every means is fine with you.

Chronicles of Crime comes from the pen of David Cicurel and is a crime game for 1 to 4 investigators, ages 14 and up. The expansion contains new game components and new scenarios.
