Product Description

UNDO - Long live the king, card game, for 2-6 players, ages 10+ (DE edition)

Royal Banquet, September 1256: Despite the sumptuous dishes, the tense atmosphere in the ballroom can be felt. Numerous guests accepted the invitation to the funeral service for the late Queen. Now they are waiting for what the grieving king will say - after all, he is now without an heir to the throne! Many people present sense an opportunity as a result. When the experienced king finally gets up, there is an expectant silence. He lifts his goblet and lets his keen gaze wander over the guests. "Few of you are here to mourn my beloved consort with me," the king begins and takes a sip from the goblet. Suddenly he begins to cough and puts his hand to his throat. He collapses and pulls food to the floor. A murmur goes through the crowd, orders are frantically shouted. The king is hurriedly carried out of the hall. Minutes of dismay. Then the personal doctor enters the hall and announces: "The king is dead!"

UNDO - Long Live the King is not about solving the crime or identifying a murderer. Instead, players must travel through the king's past as disembodied weavers of fate to prevent his death. Each of the Zeitspränge brings with it a momentous decision that ultimately determines whether the king will live or die in the end. Will the players be able to change fate and prevent his death?
