Thanks to our new technology we are able to produce new classic rune roleplaying dice for beginners and veterans at a price suitable for every player. Made with simple but beautiful runic lettering. The dice are readable like never before.

What does "classic" mean? Classic is never dated, never awkward and shows a sense of style. It goes with everything and is useful in every situation. It suits everyone, not just the rich and the snobby. The classic can be simple or refined, but it is never vulgarly ornate. The golden rule of moderation is what sets it apart from everything else. So what does the Q WORKSHOP mean by the classic runic dice? It is a set of polyhedral dice made from the finest materials to a classically elegant design, with a simple but beautiful runic script that is as legible as it has ever been. These are no frills. It is a very useful set for all games. Available in many colours, these dice are designed to help your heroes explore dungeons, fight dragons and find the right adventurous path in all worlds. These sets will be your friends. Take them with you wherever you play your favourite games. We are proud of our Classic Runic Dice Sets because the simplicity of these gaming tools has been combined with aesthetics. No one has the right to say that classic means boring and ordinary. We create beautiful dice, Classic is not a deviation from this principle.

Colours play a very important role in our lives, whether we are aware of it or not. They have the ability to influence our feelings and moods in a way that few other things can. When designing your character, you should ask yourself: what colour suits your hero? How can you best show your personality and tell the other players about it? It might also be worth choosing a special colour for him. This non-verbal signal can be a great help in creating a more intense atmosphere during the game. Should a war mage roll red and a peaceful mystic roll green or perhaps purple because he is noble? Show off your colours with our classic rune dice sets. For example:

Classic Runic Black & red Dice Set - Blood and darkness with runes, shall I write more? It is still a very readable set in the colours of the darkest sorcery with all its shades. These are not dice for the peaceful mage, but for the experienced, bitter warrior who knows all about battle and is waiting for the next opportunity to send fireballs into the face of his or her enemies.
