Viking Modern Dice Set: Mjolnir

The silver lightning. We give you these uncompromising dice with a touch of Norse Mythology, like Thor's mighty hammer bringing down thunders and lightning upon his foes. The Viking-style engravings surround digits written in an old runic font, making the dice mystical and appealing. The silver painting on a stormy background brings to mind Viking's ornaments in a dense fog of the Northlands.

One of the most unusual figures in the pantheon of deities in Norse mythology, was Thor Odinson. Being a mighty god of storms and lightning, he was characterized by a fierce character and sometimes recklessness, but he always emerged victorious in every trial. His ferocity in battle was a model for Viking warriors, and wearing his symbol was meant to bring courage and strength to fight. The lightning strike was identified with Mjolnir, Thor's famous war hammer, which helped him control the lightning, was known to return to his hand after being thrown, and allowed him to distribute blessings.

It is unquestionably right to call the new Modern Viking Dice Set by Mjolnir's name. First of all, the silver engravings are reminiscent of lightning, and the storm-colored material further enhances the impression of Mjolnir's grandeur. Secondly, the remarkable legibility of the digits surrounded by immersive patterns inspired by Viking ornaments is full of mysticism and extremely straightforward at the same time.

Just like our first set of polyhedrons from this line – Viking Dice Set: Valhalla – this one also refers to Norse mythology and culture. But that doesn't mean its only calling is to be used by brash warriors! It will also work just as well for a wizard who hurls lightning at his enemies, a sailor on the high seas, a researcher of supernatural phenomena, or a rogue who loves silver!

Just like Mjolnir, a mighty war hammer with magical powers, glistened with lightning in Thor's hands, so will this set of dice be your source of electrifying success in every test. Extremely legible digits, surrounded by Viking ornaments, will flash in silver for you whenever you decide to use them in your game. The stormy background will set your mind in the most epic mood: the calm before the storm, followed by violent action and devastating attacks. With these dice in your hands, you are truly holding your own variation of the Mjolnir's power!
