Product Description

When the owner of the fish stall takes a break and a nap, his cats take over the shop - what could possibly get away! You guessed it, the cats can't resist the fresh fish, and 1-2-3 grope for all the tastiest kinds!

The game by designer Benjamin Leung with a playing time of less than 20 minutes is charming and fun at the same time: Fish & Katz offers responsive play at its best, including its own cat paw finger for full cat authenticity. In Fish & Katz, cute cats and tasty fish meet at an Asian fish market brought to life by the well-known Korean artist Hami. Like well-known reaction games with a bell, Fish & Katz has an incredibly high prompt and no waiting time thanks to the cat's paw finger. Fish & Katz is a reaction game that is also wonderful to play with children and different generations.

Caution. Not suitable for children under 36 months.
