Product Description

The famous Royal Guard of Sunsppear of the House of Martell consists of only a few men, but is one of the best trained units in all of Westeros. It is so adaptable that it is suitable for both offensive and defensive purposes. Although its armour is heavier than that of most Martell units, it can keep up thanks to its good condition. As the hard core of a vanguard, the Royal Guard makes Martell troops almost invincible.

The unit expansion A Song of Ice & Fire - Sunsppear Royal Guard brings a total of 13 miniatures to the popular world of the epic tabletop game. Included are 1 Spear Lord, 1 Banner Bearer of the Sunsppear Royal Guard and 11 Sunsppear Royal Guardsmen, as well as a Reinforcement Card, a Unit Card and a Movement Tableau.

The game contains unpainted miniatures.

Caution: A Song of Ice & Fire - Martell starter set is required to play this expansion.

Warning: Not suitable for children under 36 months. Danger of suffocation!
