Product Description

The set is the embodiment of the COBI slogan: "Build history, piece by piece": The Cromwell Mk. IV tank "HELA" with the exact markings of the famous command tank of General Stanisław Maczek of the 1st Armoured Division (Black Devils) of the Polish forces fighting alongside the Allies. Carefully reproduced from 544 bricks, the 1:35 scale set has been designed to fit COBI figures. All elements of historical markings and details are high quality prints! There are no decals in the set. Features of the tank include: a hinged hatch, access to the engine, a movable turret, a rotating cannon and working tracks. There is also a sign with the name of the famous tank.

The set includes a very carefully designed exclusive figure. General Stanisław Maczek (1892-1994) was an early advocate of Polish armoured weapons, a hero of the Second World War, an outstanding commander of the 1st Polish Armoured Division of the Polish Army. He was also awarded the Knight's Order of the White Eagle and was an honorary citizen of the Netherlands.

The Cromwell tank with a figure of General Maczek is a must for lovers of history, armoured weapons and a beautiful model for the collection dedicated to the Second World War. Your 1:35 scale COBI collection is not complete without this set! Build history, piece by piece!
