Product Description

The successful dice game Knaster has grown - Knaster is his name! Just as simple, but with significantly more possibilities and planning. With results like three of a kind, full house and straight, you can circle numbers - and only completely circled rows score points. It's ingenious, fast-paced and exciting. And ultimately so electrifying that you want to play again and again.

Attention: not suitable for children under 36 months!

- Number: for 2 to 12 players
- Age: from 8 years
