Product Description

Hamsters - Nut, Nut - Hooray!

Before winter comes, enough supplies must be collected. But only full chambers ensure a full belly and fat points.

Fill as many contiguous squares of your cave as the dice show. However, if the number is larger than the available space, you must start a new chamber. Will you have enough time to completely fill all the chambers you have started?

Smart games suitable for every occasion in space-saving and environmentally friendly packaging.

Attention: not suitable for children under 36 months!

- Number: for 2-6 players
