Product Description

Gamegenic has developed the Sidekick 100+ in an exclusive, extra-large version that holds 100 regular cards in double sleeves and offers additional space for extra tokens. The Convertible series is designed to present cards in new and unique ways. Remove the lid, attach it to the base or tilt your box in a variety of ways. Strong magnets keep it securely closed.

- Holds up to 100 double row cards in extra thick inner sleeves*
- Holds 100 regular double-sided cards and extra tokens or a Commander deck in thicker inner sleeves
- Sideloaded: cards are stored horizontally
- Fully removable cover that attaches to the bottom to save valuable space at the gaming table
- Freedom of use: multiple ways to display and tilt the open box
- Robust and durable box
- Strong magnets for precise and secure closure
- 100% compatible with convertible storage solutions, such as the Dungeon

*Optimised for extra thick inner sleeves. Gamegenic sleeves are recommended. Sleeves of other brands may affect capacity/compatibility.
Caution. Not suitable for children under 36 months.
