Product Description

Pictomania, Card Game, for 3-6 Players, from 8 Years

Pictomania is the drawing game without teams and waiting time. Every player draws and guesses, all at the same time. Each round there are 21 terms that can be used for drawing. What each player has to draw is decided by chance.

It is not important to create a work of art, because points are awarded if the other players guess a picture correctly. So if you can manage it with a few strokes, you will have more time to look at the pictures of the other players. Pictomania is a fast-paced and fun drawing game, in which creativity and clarity are equally important.
