Product Description

Foam Tray Set for Descent: Journeys in the Dark (2nd Edition) - Manor of Ravens, Board Game Box

At the hills in front of the city of Greyhaven, rises the abandoned Manor of Ravens. Only bandits and treasure hunters dare to go near the former home of the late great mage Ithyndrus. Legendary treasures and mighty artifacts still lie hidden within the walls. To protect them, a new guardian has awoken. They call him Skarn and his power becomes threatening. New challenges are waiting for you.

To master these new adventures, the expansion Manor of Ravens comes with more heroes, monsters and classes for your Descent collection. In order to keep them safe and tidy, we designed the foam tray set for the original Descent: Journeys in the Dark Second Edition – Manor of Ravens board game box.

All of the ten plastic figures are given their own, precisely tailored compartment. Thereby the Bandits' swords are spared from buckling as well as the claws of the spirits. Moreover, painted figures are protected against abrasion. The foam tray (dimensions: 247 mm x 247 mm x 40 mm height) and the topper contained in the set are made of high-quality, chlorine- and acid-free foam.

A further nine compartments ensure the organization of the other game components, such as tokens and game cards. The cards can be divided into two compartments of different sizes. This way you can always keep a good overview. Annoying mix up of the game material is avoided. The 16 map tiles find their place under the foam tray. The two Hero Sheets, as well as the Rulebook/ Quest Guide lie on the foam topper.

The set also includes the matching foam topper.

Attention! Not suitable for children under 36 months.
