Product Description

Juicy Fruits, board game (DE), for 1-4 players, ages 8+

At Juicy Fruits, players grow tasty fruits on their own little island paradise. Your goal is to get more points than the others by supplying ships with fruit and establishing tourist businesses on your island.

Clever planning and good timing are important, as delivering ships is valuable. Creates space, but also gives the other players the chance to snatch away the best trades. In each round the players in Juicy Fruits move a harvest tile and receive as many fruits of one type as they have moved free spaces. You can then deliver to one of the anchored ships or purchase a trade tile. Later in the game, these can also be moved to activate their special function.

The "Juice color" module, which is also included, offers additional variance for experienced players.
