Product Description

Characters (new design) - expansion for werewolves from Düsterwald, card game (DE), for 8 - 28 players, ages 10+

A whole expansion with new characters, that give the game a new touch. Now the werewolf specialists are confronted with new turns of events, because everything changes with the roles that are in the game.

The two sisters can talk about the welfare of the village at night. Does an angel appear with a purpose of its own? Or is a knight with a rusty sword rushing to the village's aid? An actor also visits the village and can take on the characteristics of other characters on a daily basis. This brings a little chaos into play because nothing is what it seems. Another character can have the task of eliminating all people from another population group, for example, directing his grudge against all players with glasses or beards. If he, as a manipulator, knows how to convince the other villagers that there are only werewolves in this group of the village, then he can win the game on his own. And many other interesting characters are waiting to be tried out in the playgroups.
