Product Description

Romeo and Julia - board game (DE), for 2 players, ages 14+

This cooperative strategy game for two is set in beautiful Verona from the 16th century. There are two bitterly warring families the love luck of Romeo & Julia. The players take on the roles of the two lovers. The tragic couple are not allowed to speak freely with each other and can only arrange to meet secretly. Otherwise the hatred between the families will deepen. By cleverly playing cards and messages, the players try to work together to ensure that in the end love wins over hate. The game box can be unfolded to create an atmospheric theater setting. On this stage move Romeo & Julia and her companion to different places. There are 9 chapters and just as many levels of difficulty. This allows the game to be perfectly adapted and varied.
