Product Description

Friss mich nicht - board game (DE), for 2-4 players, ages 4+

Insects are depicted on the cube instead of numbers. If the insect you rolled is on a directly adjacent space, you have to move your frog to this space - even if that means you have to hop backwards! If the insect that was rolled isn't right next door, it's the next player's turn. If another player's frog is already on the field, you can throw him out and send him back to the start.

Simple rules, a little skill and a little bit of luck make don't eat me! an ideal game for the whole family.
