Product Description

Fuchs und Hase - The area search game, for 2+ players, ages 3+ (DE edition)

Antje Damm has come up with something new, especially original, for MeterMorphosen. Your surface search game turns apartment, street, playground and garden into a color and surface search laboratory, because it is important to fill all punched-out surfaces appropriately. The rabbit likes books with letters, the fox likes books with pictures, as it says on the cards - the fillings must be made accordingly. The 24 thick cards with different openings show the world of Hase on one side and the world of Fox on the other. The punchings always affect both sides.

Warning! Not suitable for children under 36 months.
