Product Description

Cóatl - Card Game, for 1-4 players, from 10 years (DE edition).

After Coatl the board game, now "Coatl - The Card Game" is released!

The high priest of the Aztecs, chosen by the gods, has decreed that the walls of the temple Tenochtitlan Quetzalcoatl are to be decorated with masterpieces by the most talented artists. Since this honour is only due to the best painters, a competition is announced. Secure the favour of the gods by providing the designs they most desire and impress the high priest to go down in Aztec history with your art.

You compete to impress the Aztec High Priest by painting a cóatl each that best fulfils the divine prophecies. To do this, you take turns over four rounds to place cards on your Cóatl. In the fifth and last round, you only place the head and tail on your Cóatl. Finally, the high priest gives his verdict.

Attention! Not suitable for children under 36 months!

- Age: from 10 years
- Number of players: 1 - 4
- Game duration: 25 minutes
