Product Description

Call of Cthulhu 7th Edition - Dice Set, black and green

Official Call of Cthulhu 7th Edition dice set by Q-Workshop contains 7 polyhedral unusual dice, that will add special atmosphere to your gaming sessions.

In fables, the seventh son of the seventh son usually has great power and the ability to overcome all obstacles. He is born to be the hero and victorious in all struggles. Q WORKSHOP created a set of seven dice for the seventh edition of the great game Call of Cthulhu from Chaosium, one of the oldest publishers of role-playing games still in existence. Behold the Call of Cthulhu 7th Edition Black & green Dice Set (7). Believe me or not, but sympathetic magic works. Seven is magic. So are our dice. Made of the best material, black dice with carved tentacles and Elder Signs, additionally covered with light green paint are the quintessence of what is most characteristic in the Call of Cthulhu - the class and horror, so different from other games, where the fight is in the first place. Right after the first throw, you will understand that you should care about aesthetics and never let the game change into a primitive d100 throwing and rattling. You can play using casual dice, but where's the style and elegance? Our dice are a great help in the game and marvelous tools for Ladies and Gentlemen who are Investigators immersed in madness, not some shabby adventurers, thirsty only for gold.

Caution! Not suitable for children under 36 months.
