Product Description

Bloodsucker black & silver dice set (7 pieces)

Q WORKSHOP proudly presents the incomparable Bloodsucker Polyhedral Dice Set, unique and the best for all immortal heroes or undead.

These dice were found deep down in the drawer of our secret project, covered with soil from a Carpathian tomb. There was a time in the Unzeit of vampire role-playing games when the best horror setting was that of the Ravens on the Demon Plane of Horror. Everything was packed in the famous red and black boxes with cards, monster manual pages and all other game material. Adventuring in a land of fantastical vampires, lycanthropes, ghost ships of horror and gypsies was the best we could play. We cherish those memories to this day. It brings a bloody tear to our eyes and an Eastern European accent to our language. So today we would like to present some dark, eternal beauties that have no equal on this side of life or the other. This set is suitable for both old and young players, whether you are playing as one of the undead or trying to get rid of them. This set is sure to help you find fun and enjoyment in beating death or making the undead state more bearable.

This bloodsucker dice set is black as the night of horror adventures, with a glass of dark cola and a deep, hollow voice of the game master telling us scary stories about the land of vampires full of crows and bloodsuckers. The deep engraving, resembling the best graveyard metalwork, is filled with mercury paint (non-toxic), reminiscent of the restless nights and mists full of vampiric slaves. The morbid light of the games our creator played guided us in our search for truly nostalgic fonts, colour schemes and that ambience of long-forgotten fun with role-playing games that only the inner children can recreate. But the past never returns, and we hope you will create new memories with these dice. Roll them wisely and find them in dark corners of your playroom after exciting throws. This set is your tool to go on new adventures and have the same fun as we did, at least in the remakes of your most popular campaigns from the past.

Caution! Not suitable for children under 36 months.
