Product Description

Wizard Dark Blue and Orange Dice Set (7 pieces)

Q WORKSHOP proudly presents the Arcade Dice Set - our homage to the days when boys and girls started exploring dungeons and defeating dragons on sturdy bikes. This set pays homage to the decade when it all began and was fresh as new. In this set there is the same power and magic as in adventures in the worlds of the first fantasy role-playing games.

There are many dice in our range. We love these little polyhedra and creating them is an adventure every time. Some of them are waiting for better times and some of them are so full of energy that we have to set them free. This set of cubes is full of magic and needs to be set free. See the circles? Any doctor will be glad to have them in hand, and any sorceress would certainly use them in her own way. These are the dice for the masters, intricately engraved in the style of ancient geniuses like Leonardo da Vinci or Stan Lee.

Our best designer Emil was once asked which dice would be best for the magician. We thought of the universal Wizard Dice for modern, futuristic and fantasy magicians or wizards. Emil just smiled and gave us this azure blue set, as blue as the sky over Stonehenge at sunrise on one of the special days for great rituals. The magic circles and sienna colour on the numerals are unique. These dice are masterpieces and incredibly useful for all mystical seekers. This was the set we could only dream of. Universal. Truly magical. You couldn't ask for more.

It is easy to make dice with pentagrams or other occult symbols. The challenge with the Wizard's Set was to make the symbols of Hermetic knowledge so that they were elegant and not pretentious. Emil's project was created in the best tradition of esoteric tools from the Age of Spiritism. This was the time when gentlemen and ladies preferred the real timeless haute couture, not just this seasonal styling. True beauty and style are eternal. Look at these engraved dandy circles, sophisticated and elaborate. When you put these dice on the table, everyone will notice the difference. This is a set for the adepts of the arts, dark or light. Your wizard or sorceress needs the right insignia to show that they are not some primal shamans, but enlightened beings who seek not gold, but knowledge and forgotten secrets. The dice power of magic is at hand! Caution! Not suitable for children under 36 months.
