Product Description

Galactic black & blue, dice bag

Galactic dice bag, available in two versions, handmade from high quality cotton. The front of the dice bag is printed with a pattern referencing space exploration and alien technology. Choose between two prints - blue like a pulsar or yellow like the burning sun in the Void.

The blue seal looks like the alien message that will guide you to the end of the universe and help you find an answer to humanity's most important questions. This bag is very safe because two strings hold everything you put in it.

Caution. Not suitable for children under 36 months.
