Product Description

Halloween Pumpkin black & orange Dice Set (7 pieces)

We made the unusual set with the unique design, so don't think that these polyhedrons are only a prank. It is not a prank, but a useful set for all games, even the most serious. These are very merry dice with the touch of grotesque macabre and when you roll them, you can hear very very quiet first tones of Bach's Toccata and Fugue in D Minor. Yes, that organ music from horrors!

Q WORKSHOP presents our latest terrifying and joyful Halloween Dice Set. These very serious black dice with the orange filling of complex engravings are great for all fans of healthy pumpkins, vegetables, and forbidden fruits, even after death! If your name is Eddie and a surgeon gives you scissors in place of hands, or you are half dead, half sewn from scratches, even if you have a very unhealthy pale girl or boyfriend, both named Frankie - the set will be a perfect addition to your collection. We recommend them to simply normal and not-so-paranormals that have a normal life but wanna give a try to pumpkin jam or pumpkin dice set. We made this unusual set with a unique design, so don't think these polyhedrons are only a prank. No, these dice are a real RPG set, with all dice from d20 to d4. There is a chance that potential critics will be too distant and not chilled enough to admit this, but who cares. These are very merry dice with the touch of grotesque macabre, and when you roll them, you can hear very quiet first tones of Bach's Toccata and Fugue in D Minor. Yes, that organ music from horrors.

It is not a prank, but a useful set for all games, even the most serious ones. Even the story of its creation is quite interesting. This set had been designed by our most ancient creator, that works since Great Flood. He had made only the renderings of d6, as decoration for Halloween banners on social media. Brothers Dera have created many digital dice, that were only decorations and renders for events and holidays. But many of our fans actually liked those pumpkin d6s and wrote that we should make them into real Halloween dice. So we collected hundreds of "Likes!" and year later made the Halloween D6 and added one to each of the orders before Day of Calaveras (sculpted pumpkins). But this was not enough. Many peoples wrote to us that the dice were superb and there should have been the whole set from d20 to d4. Voice of the people has spoken and the whole set on Kickstarter was made. We make dice for fans, so it was a pleasure to design and produce all seven polyhedrals and make this set one of the brightest star in this project.

Caution! Not suitable for children under 36 months.
