Product Description

Runic black & golden velour, dice bag

An artefact of the ancient powers. This dice bag made of black and gold runic velour is more than just a bag for your polyhedra. It conveys an air of mysticism, as if you were pulling out a symbol of your destiny by reaching for a dice hidden inside. And that's quite apt, because dice are often the ultimate deciders of life and death in game rounds, don't you think?

This dice pouch is made of thick black fine velour with gold satin lining. One of the sides is decorated with a precious golden print. Two strings hold everything you put in it. Whether hanging on your belt, sitting on the gaming table or simply lying on the shelf - it still looks mysterious and noble.

Caution. Not suitable for children under 36 months.
