Product Description

Runic Beige & Black, Dice Bag

This cotton bag is decorated with protective runes - making it perfect for storing gold nuggets, gems as well as rare ingredients, dried herbs and lucky dice.

Runes belong to the language of mysterious signs that tell us stories about the heroes of the North or help to write a spell that changes the fate of a brave warrior in the saga. The runic alphabet is found on stones and rocks in all places of the world. We have chosen the rune "Raido". This sigil symbolises travel, good fortune and movement in the right direction. So basically everything we wish for the owner of this bag.

This is a classically coloured rune dice bag, made of thick beige fine cotton and printed with noble black ink. The circular runes on the sides are meant to bring luck to all your actions and rolls. This bag is very secure as two strings hold everything you put in it.

Caution. Not suitable for children under 36 months.
