CATS Dice Set: Purrito

Cats are amazing creatures. Many people think that they are just fluffy pets that often give in to their whims... even though they were once considered sacred animals, able to see the invisible. Today they are domesticated, either treated like adorable furries with no significance or like dignified rulers graciously allowing us to feed and caress them. Of course, some people know cats mainly from funny videos on the Internet -- and we think each of us knows what's on them... The truth, at least sometimes!

Cats are incredibly independent. They always go their own way, disregarding the traditions. But does that mean we can ignore them? Oh no no no -- they will not allow themselves to be so audaciously neglected. They can jump right in front of our noses with absolute nonchalance, no matter what and where we do. We all know the feeling of suddenly seeing a furry back on a webcam instead of an interlocutor; we also know what it's like to try and work while a cat has just settled herself on the keyboard. That is how Purrito is, an extraordinary feline with purple, shiny hair and golden eyes. You have no idea where she is? Don't worry; she will come when she wants to and take over your knees, head, and hands and will make you put aside everything you were doing. She will find the best job in the world for you: herself! Is it even possible to not love her? No! You can't. That's why we dedicated this wonderful Cats Dice Set to her!

Many people at Q WORKSHOP love cats. Sure, we are aware of their little quirks and humor, but most of all, we consider ourselves born under a lucky star as we can bask in the splendor of the epicness of these furry balls of charm. It was only a matter of time before the Cat Dice Set was created! Now we are giving this little cat tribute to you to be used as you wish! Of course, you have to remember that cats are essentially independent and unpredictable creatures - and these dice will probably behave the same way..

The Cat's Dice Set is remarkable not only because we dedicated it to our furry rulers... err, comrades. First of all, each dice is different - on the highest faces, there are cats indulging themselves as they please. Additionally, some faces show one of their favorite things: a bowl of food or a ball of yarn! When you look closely, you will also see traces of a cat's feet -- because who will forbid them to walk on something freshly painted?

- The more, the merrier — The set includes 7 items: a D4, a D6, a D8, a D10, a D12, a D20 and a D00.
- Shiny fur, golden eyes — The background of the dice is shimmering purple, with golden paintings.
- Cat Business — The highest faces show the silhouettes of cats in various poses, different for each dice.
- Favorite toys — Apart from clear digits, there are also a ball of yarn and a bowl of food on the dice faces.
- The furry license — the Cats Dice Set was created under the license granted to us by a cat's imprint of an ink-soaked paw on a relevant legal document.

Caution! Not suitable for children under 36 months.
