Product Description

The Dassault Mirage 2000 is a contemporary French single-seat fighter (or two-seat trainer) aircraft produced by Dassault Aviation. It is a single-engine jet aircraft in a delta wing system of all-metal construction. Some 600 units have been created for use by the armed forces: France, Brazil, Egypt, Greece, India, Peru, Qatar, China and the United Arab Emirates.

From the world of COBI comes a 1/48 scale model of the Mirage 2000-5, produced under the original Dassault Aviation licence. It consists of 400 building block elements. It is a perfect model for any aviation enthusiast - to build and display - whether for decorative purposes or in a child's playroom. The model uses only high quality, durable prints for that extra detail and contains no stickers. It has many movable elements such as folding wheels and an opening cockpit.

Armed Forces is a series that contains perfectly reproduced models of modern military vehicles used around the world. It includes armed cars, vans, tanks, helicopters and aircraft. A special pilot figure is included in the set, which can be placed in the cockpit. The kit also includes a special display stand with an aircraft nameplate.
