Product Description

Welcome to the Wombat Confusion! Try to be the first to reach three points with your wombat team by either building three wombat towers or sabotaging the construction in several rounds. But be careful not to get eliminated by the others between rounds before the game is over!

Hand-to-Hand Wombat is a game of teamwork, towers and lots of hustle.

At the start of the game, take as many Wombat cards as there are people in the game to give each of you a secret role. You need a Wild Wombat (Team Evil) and for everyone else Benevolent Wombats (Team Good). At the beginning of each round, distribute the bricks in the ring (box lid) and close your eyes. From now on you have 90 seconds and only one hand! Good wombats build towers, bad wombats sabotage secretly. As soon as the time is up, stop immediately, open your eyes and score. Completed towers score points for the good wombats, unfinished towers score points for the bad wombats. Vote between rounds and eliminate the most suspicious wombat. Bluffing is the name of the game here! As soon as a team has a total of three points, it wins.

Now it's up to you: Can you, the good Wombats, build three towers and prevent the Wild Wombat from sabotaging them?

Caution. Not suitable for children under 3 years as small parts may be swallowed. Choking hazard!
