Product Description

One of the most popular cars from the former GDR in a special police version. It often aroused fear and panic among criminals, mainly because of the cruelly wailing police siren. The car had four seats and could accelerate to a speed of over 100 km/h. The 1:35 scale vehicle is made entirely from COBI blocks. The model, which is also intended for play, very faithfully reflects the streamlined shapes of the original Trabant 601. Thanks to 82 elements, minor modifications to the vehicle are possible. Ideally suited for every collector's shelf, but also ideal for great play fun thanks to the movable wheels.

Attention: not suitable for children under 36 months!
