Product Description

The classic BMW M1 in the Zol'Auto livery with start number 72 gave full throttle at the 24-hour race in France's legendary mecca for endurance racing. Team BMW Zol'Auto drivers in the 1981 season were Pierre-François Rousselot, François Sérvanin and Laurent Ferrier. In the timeless design of the eighties and with striking and colourful paintwork, the BMW M1 Procar "BMW Zol'Auto, No.72" 24h, 1981 is impressive.

The Carrera EVOLUTION BMW M1 Procar "BMW Zol'Auto, No.72" 24h, 1981 slot car brings the best days of endurance motorsport back to your home racetrack. With the distinctive shape of the famous racing car, every race is a little trip back in time at the same time. The vehicle adds a refreshing dash of colour with its striking paint job. The slot car also impresses with its front and rear lights. Thanks to the original licence from BMW, the vehicle looks just like its great role model in the iconic rainbow look. The Carrera car can also be converted to digital using a separate digital decode. Thanks to Advanced and Beginner modes, the car can be adapted to personal driving skills.
