Product Description

Gamegenic presents the next revolution in card game accessories: the Sizemorph Divider! This new innovation is the first divider on the market that can change its width to fit almost any unused space in a deck box!

The Sizemorph Divider brings order to almost any box: whether it's filling the space between two packs of cards or holding deck boxes securely in place.

The width of the Sizemorph Divider can vary between 5 and 30 millimetres, offering maximum flexibility. It comes with a foldable tab that ensures that no cards are damaged when the box is closed. The tab simply folds back and unfolds again when the box is opened.

- The first card divider that adjusts in width to fill unused space in the box
- Additional buffer: cards and deck boxes stay securely in place
- High flexibility: width can vary between 5-30 mm
- Foam interior, durable polypropylene exterior
- Product size: 66 x 91 mm (depth between 5 and 30 mm)
- Material: Polypropylene, PE foam
