Product Description

Foam Tray Set for Mansions of Madness (2nd Edition): Path of the Serpent, Board Game Box

This expansion takes you as an investigator into the unexplored, treacherous wilderness of the Amazon. But lianas and jaguars are the least of your problems. For in the depths of the jungle, secrets of past civilizations await discovery, as do ancient monsters with insatiable appetites.

The disastrous jungle on the gaming table is more than enough - with this Feldherr foam set you can protect your miniatures and keep order in your board game box.

- The set fits exactly into the original board game box of the Mansions of Madness Second Edition expansion "Path of the Serpent" by FFG.
- Provides space for all 12 figures plus all accessories from the box.
- The lid of the board game box protrudes approx. 4 cm.

A large foam tray fits exactly into the original game box. It is divided into five compartments for miniatures and accessories, and a large compartment for the foam inlay.

The separate inlay has a bottom and can therefore also be removed with contents. In the inlay the 4 Investigator figures can be safely stored together with 5 Monster miniatures. Each miniature gets its own custom-fit compartment. This prevents collisions, protects the sensitive parts from breakage and painted miniatures are spared from scratches and flaking paint.

In the small compartments you sort the person, door and wall tokens.

On the foam inlay there is still enough space to place the 17 map tiles and the four Investigator cards.

For the Ancient Basilisk and the two Temple Guardians three compartments are reserved on the large foam tray. The small cards, such as Spell or Condition cards, have a compartment with a finger-wide recess. The Overgrowth and Rubble Tokens are located in the last compartment.

Finally, the supplied foam topper ensures that the contents do not bump against the lid during transport and that everything stays where it belongs. The rulebook lies on top.

This way all the Investigator and Monster figures are safely packed, the game material is neatly stowed away and you are best prepared for the dangers of the jungle.

Attention! Not suitable for children under 36 months.
