Product Description

Organiser + foam set for Tainted Grail: The Fall of Avalon + Monsters of Avalon, basic game box.

With this set you get the Feldherr board game insert for the Tainted Grail basic game box, as well as the foam set for the "Monsters of Avalon" board game box for a low-priced bundle.

- The two sets fit exactly into the original board game boxes, once for the Tainted Grail: The Fall of Avalon basic game and once for the "Monsters of Avalon" box from Awaken Realms
- The foam insert of the basic game has space for all 8 figures of the basic game. Plus an additional compartment for the expansion character Niamh
- Four plastic card holders help you sort the playing cards. All cards also fit with sleeves
- A plastic token holder ensures that no marker gets lost
- The character boards and paper materials (introduction letters, adventure maps, memory sheets, book of discoveries, quick start rules and game instructions) are stored separately
- The insert for "Monsters of Avalon" is tailor-made for all 20 miniatures from the Miniatures Pack

Five compartments on the foam insert of the basic game box are reserved for Beor, Ailei, Arev, Wurm and the fifth heroine in the pack, Niamh. The three menhirs and the one-timer are also each allocated an individually tailored compartment. The exact fit helps with sorting and also ensures that nothing slips around on the way. The delicate parts of the figures are thus optimally protected from damage. When you have painted your models, you can be sure that the colours will still be intact after transport.

Two compartments remain, in which you can store the discs and the health indicators, for example.

After the miniatures have been taken care of, we take care of the game material.

Next to the foam insert, place the two card holders for the standard-sized cards and the card holder for the large cards. Here you can neatly store the encounter cards, event cards and all other standard cards before and after the game. The location and overview cards go in the large card holder next to it.

And because the small cards still need a place, you also get a card holder made of sturdy plastic. You place it on the foam insert, which you have previously covered with the matching foam lid.

Of course, all playing cards also fit with sleeves.

Now you can place the playing cards between the card holders without them slipping around during transport. On top of this you pack the second foam cover and the paper materials (introduction letters, adventure maps, memory sheets, book of discoveries).

The last empty space in this pack is filled by the token holder. You can sort the markers and dice here and put the box filled like this directly on the game table at the beginning of the game.

After everything is in place, cover it with the third foam cover. On top of this are the game instructions and the quick start rules. All the miniatures are safely stowed away and all the game material is neatly stored. You are now prepared for any adversity.

From the Angry Mob, to the Wolfwalker, to the Underbrush Wurm - all 20 figures of the Miniatures Pack are safely stored in the second foam set. Here, too, a foam cover is of course included in the scope of delivery.
