Product Description

The excitement and risk increases with every card that is turned face up! Monopoly Ausgezockt is a fast-moving version of Monopoly that is played with cards and only takes about 20 minutes. Instead of moving around the board with playing pieces, all players receive a deck of cards with cash, bankruptcy and other cards (no play money) that can provide advantages or disadvantages. The players reveal a corresponding number of cards depending on the dice roll. If you want to be on the safe side, you only turn over a few cards and shout loudly "Ausgezockt!" - or risk everything for the big money. A bankruptcy card can be hidden behind every card that is revealed! Players buy plots by placing their cash cards on the playing fields - or even on other players' cards! Whose card is on top at the end of the round gets the building of the plot. In the end, the winner is whoever has the longest skyline! An exciting livening up of the family game evening for adults and children from 8 years.
