Product Description

Obsthain, board game, for 1 player, ages 10+ (DE edition)

Plant your orchard and harvest as much fruit as possible. Captivatingly simple and yet so crisp - this game inspires you to keep trying! How will your harvest be? Streaked? Delicious? Or even to believe plum?

Obsthain is a challenging solo laying puzzle that, thanks to a brisk 10 minutes of play time, you will always be happy to have with you during breaks and when traveling. It is your incentive to harvest as many fruits as possible by cleverly laying out and placing your cards in hand. Place your cards so that the fruit trees depicted on them cover other trees of the same type in your orchard. The more skillfully you cover the trees, the more fruits - and therefore points - you will harvest.

Obsthain also contains rules for playing with more people. For this you need more copies of the game. In the multi-player game, one person announces and everyone else follows accordingly. This gives you access to the same cards in the course of the game, but you can determine the order in which they are played and where and how you place them yourself. Who will bring in the richest harvest?

Obsthain won the Golden Geek Award for Best Print & amp; Play game excellent.
